Manila, Philippines -- If you are the type who cares about style and convenience, here is your MP3 player! Apacer Technology Inc, a global leader in memory modules and digital storage, today announced the new Audio Steno AU240, a MP3 player with sleek and compact look. Unlike other MP3 players of plastic material, the leather finish brings AU240 a sense of nobility in addition to its slim appearance. Lighter, shorter, and thinner, the AU240 packs the most elegant feel and urban trendy style into its polished and slender case.
